 - b. Second required. A 'second' is a vote of support by someone, other than the author of the motion, to put the motion to a vote. In order to put a motion to a vote, the motion must be seconded by a member of the Council (except for motions to amend a motion and motions to adjourn the meeting).

- c. Amending motions. When a motion is pending before the Council, any member may suggest an amendment without a second, at any time prior to the vote of the motion. The amendment, however, must be accepted by the author and the second of the original motion in order for it to carry. The author and the second may choose not to accept the amendment.
 - d. Substitute motions. A substitute motion, which shall replace the original motion, may be made prior to a vote on the original motion. Substitute motions must be seconded before it can replace the original.
 - e. Withdrawing a motion. After a motion is stated, the motion shall be in the possession of the Council but may be withdrawn by the author.

 - e. The Chair should call to order any person who interrupts or questions an individual who has the floor.
 - f. For the good of the meeting, the Chair has the authority to formalize discussion by requiring individuals to be recognized and given the floor before asking a question to another Council member or to a visitor whose business is before the Council. In some situations, it may be appropriate for a Council member to ask the Chair to exercise this authority; this request should be made informally or as a motion.

- g. Transition from discussion to vote.
 - a. When discussion appears to be closed, the Chair should inquire of the meeting, “Are you ready for the question?” If none seeks recognition to speak, the Chair should read aloud or have the Secretary read aloud the motion in preparation for vote.
 - b. When discussion becomes redundant or seems not to be progressing toward closure, a Council member may focus group process by getting recognition from the Chair and then stating, “I call the question.” The Chair should then inquire of the meeting, “Are you ready for the question?” If none seeks recognition to speak, the Chair should read aloud or have the Secretary read aloud the motion in preparation for a vote.
